TEST 3   Student's name: ……………………………...

1. W każdym zdaniu wybierz właściwe słówko.
   o In order to identify the bacteria responsible for my bladder infection, the doctor ordered a unrinary / urination / urine culture test.
   o Each doctor should take their time to thoroughly examine / examinate / exam the patient.
   o To diagnose a food allergy, your allergist may use a skin price / pick / prick test to measure the presence of lgE antibodies for the suspect food.
   o In order to check whether your doughter has anaemia, we need to run a full blood course / counter / count.

2. Dialogue. Przetłumacz na język polski zaznaczone w tekście dialogu wyrażenia.
Operator: Emergency operator. State your emergency.
JS: We need an ambulance right away.
Operator: What is your name?
JS: John. John Smith.
Operator: Can you tell me what happened?
JS: There was a car accident.
Operator: Where are you?
JS: I'm not sure. I was driving in my car when I saw the pileup. I'm somewhere on Blossom Road. Can you trace my location?
Operator: Yes, we'll try to do that. Can you see if anyone is hurt?
JS: One of the drivers is lying on the ground unconscious and the other one is bleeding. There's someone trapped in the back of her car, too. We need to rescue her before the car explodes! I'm going to see if I can help.
Operator: Sir, I need you to stay on the line. I'm sending an ambulance right now and they'll have the Jaws of Life and other equipment to do the job. The paramedics will be there very soon.
JS: Okay, but hurry!

………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………
………………………………………………………………………………………………………

3. Podaj nazwy (język angielski) materiałów/środków, przyborów/sprzętu przedstawionych na zdjęciach.

………….. ……………… ……………… …………… …………….. ………………….